The terms of discontinuance are not announced, but it is understood that Dr. McSweeney did not pay any damages and that both sides are to pay their own costs. This case was brought for alleged malpractice, which consisted of an operation on Mrs. Cosgriff for appendicitis, from which it was claimed she did not fully recover. The case was once tried in Chittenden county court and occupied four weeks, some sensational evidence being submitted. The trial resulted in a disagreement.

St. Albans has lost another of its well known characters in Miss Cora E. Judd, who has been taken to the state asylum for the insane at Waterbury. Miss Judd, who has been conducting herself queerly for several years past, has of late developed more pronounced symptoms of insanity, being much given to following and annoying people. She was arrested yesterday and taken before Judge O. N. Kelton of the probate court, where Drs. Davidson, Arnold and Sherwood conducted a thorough examination as to her sanity. She was pronounced insane and Judge Kelton ordered her committed to the Waterbury asylum, where she has been taken by Chief of Police Mahoney.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It kills itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GLEANINGS AND GOSSIP.

Dr. O'Reilly, archbishop of Adelaide, South Australia, possesses an unusual accomplishment. Before he became a bishop he was the editor of one of the Australian Catholic Journals. His compositors went out on a strike and in the emergency he helped in the mechanical department. By the time the difficulty had been adjusted he had pretty well mastered the art of typesetting and for the rest of his editorial career he did not write his leading articles. He just went into the composing room and set them up.

Sir Edmund Mouson, who has arrived on a visit to America, and who retired last year from the post of ambassador to France, declining a peerage offered him by King Edward, was the right hand man of Lord Lyons at Washington during the civil war. He became a great favorite with President Lincoln, and still recalls a number of the latter's characteristic stories. Sir Edmund enjoys the distinction of having had two emperors—Alexander II of Russia and Emperor Francis Joseph—simultaneously request of the British government his appointment to their respective capitals. He was sent to the Austrian court. While ambassador at Paris he averted war between England and France over the Fashoda incident—a case almost parallel to the successful adjudication of the Trent controversy.
